

AG AMBASSADOR INTERN WITH BROWN COUNTY DAIRY PROMOTIONS

Brown County Dairy Promotions is a local non-profit that is committed to educating the youth of Brown County on the importance of agriculture, dairy consumption, and nutrition. We accomplish this goal by offering programs and educational tools free of charge to educators within Brown County.

DETAILS

10-15 Hours per week

More hours required
During special events.

Internship to start in late
May and last until late
August

Work from home
May be required

$15.00/hr.

Est. Start date end of May

RESPONSIBILITIES

Intern shall assist the ambassador and ambassador coordinator to deliver educational programs to schools, organizations and other community groups within Brown County.

Intern to assist with setting up and working the family/Ag Venture tent at Brown County Breakfast on the Farm and Brown County Fair.

Intern to assist the Ambassador and Ambassador Coordinator in creating new agriculture education material to be used at school visits and farm field trips.

Intern expected to make public appearances to promote dairy products and their consumption and work with media outlets.

Intern shall provide regular reports of foregoing activities performed by intern to the ambassador coordinator and board committee members.

REQUIREMENTS

Junior in high school or older
Have own transportation
Desire to work with children
Have an interest in Agriculture

SKILLS

Good Communication
Social Media Experience
Hardworking and Reliable
Organized and Outgoing
Reliable

SUBMISSION

Please send all resumes with a cover letter reasoning why you are interested in the position to elizabeth.schwalbach@wecenergygroup.com